Parents must provide proof of child's date of birth by giving Shofar a copy of birth certificate or passport on entry.

New government funding levels are coming into force from April 2024, that will apply to children 9 months plus. We have no further details on the hourly rates and will let parents know when this information is released. Parents wishing to choose session times must agree to pay for extra charges which cover Food, Jewish studies, Hebrew, Fitness, Music and other activities and the set fees will be reduced by the funding level. Fees are inclusive of nappies, wipes, creams, toiletries, formula milks (except special dietary requirements) up to one years old, all meals, refreshments and snacks, feeding bottles, bibs, sheets, blankets and play equipment.

* Additional morning or afternoon sessions will be allocated if we have availability.

 All ad-hoc sessions must be agreed by management and must be paid for once the invoice is issued at the time of booking.

No refunds will be given for cancelled ad-hoc sessions once booked. One change to your child's booked schedule is allowed with two months' notice; and in exceptional circumstances management may allow a second change.

5% sibling discount applies to both siblings currently in attendance for full month at Shofar but is not applicable to part month or ad-hoc sessions.

No refunds will be given for any sessions missed due to sickness, holidays, enforced temporary closures or when Shofar is closed for Holidays / Staff Training.
